1. A Soviet officer [redacted] (b)(1) (b)(3) has informed acquaintances in Moldavia, that Soviet officers are continually reminded at all meetings and conferences of the approaching campaign against Yugoslavia. According to the Soviet officer, operations against Yugoslavia will begin when the war in Korea has been terminated. The officer further remarked that intense preparations for war are underway in the USSR. This officer likewise declared that the Soviet population is dissatisfied with the Communist yoke and awaits with impatience the opportunity to free herself, which would come with the outbreak of hostilities.*

2. [redacted] (b)(1) (b)(3)

[redacted] Comment: This remark, if made, probably referred to a general war rather than operations against Yugoslavia only. (b)(1) (b)(3)
